A Real Wonderland.

South Dakota, with its rich silver mines, bonanza farms, wide ranges and strange natural formations, is a veritable wonderland. At Mound City, in the home of Mrs. E. D. Clapp, a wonderful case of healing has lately occurred. Her son seemed near death with lung and throat trouble. "Exhausting coughing spells occurred every five minutes," writes Mrs. Clapp, "when I began giving Dr. King's New Discovery, the great medicine, that saved his life and completely cured him." Guaranteed for coughs and colds, throat and lung troubles, by the Red Cross pharmacy. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

RANDOLPH.

High School Teachers Were Remembered By Their Pupils.

The teachers of the high school were pleasantly surprised on Monday morning, when, immediately following the opening exercises, they were each presented a substantial token from the pupils in the rooms. Prof. Ham was presented a large picture neatly framed in black moulding. Miss Du Bois received a piece of cut glass and picture and Mrs. Warner a jewel case and picture. This evidence of esteem from the pupils cannot fail to be appreciated by the teachers, and is a proof positive of the love of those who are instructed by them.

Miss Essie Smith is to assist Mrs. M. H. Miller through the holiday season.

Willie Rand returned today to Springfield, where he has employment for the winter.

Stephen Butterfield, the old-time station agent at Roxbury, was in town on Monday.

W. C. Buck is housed with a severe cold not being able to attend to business.

Mrs. Albert Beadle is still very feeble a doctor from Keene, N. H., has been here in consultation with Dr. Bailey on his case which is considered hopeful.

The commissioners met on the estate of the late Cyril Sumner yesterday at the home of Mrs. George Spear, where Mrs. Sumner resides. The administrator of the estate, Mr. Calahan of Brookfield, was present at the meeting.

The auction of the property of the late Edwin Church was held at Saturday and the administrator, D. D. Howe, of this town remained on the premises over Sunday. Lyman Rix bought six cows for Carrie White at Randolph Center and one horse for himself.

The parents of Antonio Antonio Marzulli gave a select party on Sunday in honor of his sixteenth birthday. Half a dozen or more of his friends were invited to join the young man at a dinner served at 7:30 in the evening. An elaborate menu consisting of seven courses was served and with music and social enjoyment the time passed pleasantly to guests, as well as to the one in whose honor the party was given.

CABOT.

Harley Wheeler Cut His Foot Quite Badly While Chopping.

Harley Wheeler cut his foot quite badly while working in the woods chopping for one Dew last Friday. M. D. Warren dressed the wound, having to take several stitches.

Schools in town will close Friday for two weeks.

Miss Florence Kendall and Edward Connell will start a dancing school in Roxbury on Wednesday evening of this week. Miss Kendall now has a large class in Montpelier.

The senior class of Norwich university held a pleasant dance in Dewey hall on Friday evening. The cadet orchestra furnished music. A large number from out of town attended.

Most of the merchants in the village have been busy during the week trimming the stores and windows in preparation for the holiday trade.

At the monthly meeting of the N. E. O. F., held in Odd Fellows' hall last Tuesday a large number of candidates were given the degree. This order was organized here about a year ago and has had a very substantial growth.

F. T. Carr, who has been running a steam laundry for the past year, aside from the meat and grocery business, contemplates disposing of the latter and giving his entire attention to the laundry business. The very satisfactory work which has been done has won him a large trade. He now has baskets in most of the surrounding towns and the increased business needs his personal attention.
